'JFK' can film in book depository

DALLAS (AP) — Oliver Stone can film scenes for his movie "JFK" in the old Texas School Book Depository.

Dallas County commissioners voted 3-2 on Tuesday to let the Oscar-winning director use the building from which President Kennedy's assassin fired the fatal shots, according to governmental findings. It is now the County Administration Building.

The movie, which begins filming

— continued on page 6

3/14/91 Hollywood Reporter

'JFK'

continued from page 4 —

next month, will star Kevin Costner as former New Orleans prosecutor James Garrison, whose investigation maintained Kennedy was the victim of a CIA and FBI conspiracy and gunman Lee Harvey Oswald was the fall guy.

Stone's Oscar-winning films include "Platoon" and "Born on the Fourth of July," as well as the current "The Doors."